Report No. 1.

1. We respectfully request that the names of the District and Church leaders of the Laymen's Movement be printed in the minutes.

2. Whereas, The Laymen's Missionary Movement of the United States has planned a National Campaign of Education and will hold an Inter-denominational meeting for men in seventy or more cities during the fall and winter of 1909-10,

Whereas, Canada has adopted a National Missionary Policy, and we believe that our nation should be aroused to its opportunity and that the Christian business men must get together to accomplish this task,

Resolved, That we endorse the plan of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and urge the pastors and laymen of our Church to co-operate in the work and to attend the meetings to be held in their respective states.

3. The year has been one of great activity in the foreign fields, and characterized by greater demands for an advance than ever before in our history and the growing national consciousness in every quarter of the globe has placed increased emphasis upon the necessity for strengthening our evangelistic and educational work and, in the United States on the other hand, we have had a series of re-adjustments along our Gulf Coast and in the West, as well as among our foreign populations, which require extraordinary activity and a far-sighted statesmanship; we would urge that a vigorous effort be now made to adequately occupy the field and provide the means for maintaining work at home and abroad.

Therefore, Resolved that we will inaugurate a campaign looking to the raising of one million dollars for Foreign Missions by the thirty-first of March, 1910, and that this campaign shall be carried on upon the basis of an average contribution of two dollars by each individual member for Foreign Missions.

And, believing that what is most needed among us in order to make effective the above purpose is a uniform and systematic method, we would strongly emphasize the EVERY-MEMBER-CAMPAIGN, and urge its inauguration in every congregation.

Resolved, That we ask the appointment of the Rev. Paul H. Linn as Conference Missionary Evangelist without salary.

F. M. BURTON,
Secretary.

W. T. McCLURE,
President.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

We, the members of the Sunday School Board, beg leave to submit the following report. The report of our Sunday School Editor was before us and indicates a forward movement in several lines of work. And many things of vital importance to the larger success of our work are being accomplished by our faithful and efficient editor.

We want to commend the graded literature which has been prepared and urge the brethren to organize their school along pedagogical lines.

We call attention to the widespread success of the Organized Class movement and recommend that as far as possible this method be used in interesting and enlisting the young people of the Church. We commend the effort of Dr. Chappel to have a mid-year meeting of the chairmen of the various Conference Boards, and have elected the chairman of this Board to attend such meeting to be held at Nashville, January, 1910.

We are glad to report that nearly all of our Sunday Schools are self-supporting and make regular contributions to missions. We again urge upon the brethren to observe Children's Day, Decision Day and Missionary Day and to strive to organize our Sunday Schools according to the Discipline.

Respectfully,

JOHN F. CASKEY, President.
HARRY G. HENLEY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

According to the report of the General Secretary, the Epworth League of the M. E. Church, South, has made substantial progress during the past year, 462 new chapters having been organized, and the work at large has prospered.

We regret that the number of Leagues in our conference has noticeably decreased during the past twelve months. We now have 8 leagues less than we had last year. We call upon the members of this body to bear this fact in mind, and to join us in an effort to arouse a forward movement in the work of the Epworth League.

The greatest thing in Missouri Leaguedom is the State League Assembly at Pertle Springs. This meeting equals in importance to the church the gathering of an annual conference, or the convening of the State Preachers' Institute. We endorse the State Assembly, and pledge Mr. Sim Beam, and his co-laborers, our hearty co-operation.

We recommend that each District hold a separate District League Conference, and that a strong effort be made to get our young people to attend the district and state meetings. As members of the League Board we offer our services to the various local chapters in any forward work they desire to inaugurate.

J. B. SWINNEY, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your committee on Sabbath observance cannot hope to say anything in their report more than has been said by you in your former reports on this subject. From year to year you have repeated the firm conviction of the permanent obligation of the Sabbath law and exhorted the church to a strict observance of it. We cannot say less, we cannot say more, nor can we offer any new reason to the Church for a conscientious adherence to the rule.

The Sabbath law has the clearest ground in the physical constitution of man and beast, and this has been firmly established by scientific investigation and popular observation. The entire body of Sunday legislation is based principally upon this consideration.

The Sabbath was instituted at the beginning of human history, was solemnly affirmed at Sinai and given a place in the first table of the Law in which are set forth the essential and permanent elements of all religion. It was a prominent feature of the preaching of the prophets when they called a degenerate age back to righteousness. It has passed over into the New Testament teaching. In fact, it has been divinely connected with the epochal points of man's history, creation and redemption, and it stands the symbolic type of that rest which remains for the redeemed church when life's weary week is finished. It is the unbroken tradition of the church in all ages.

If any man will not accept the divine authority of the Sabbath law from these tokens, neither would he be persuaded though one should arise from the dead and declare it unto him.

And yet there is hardly another precept of Christian morals which affects the conscience of the world so feebly, and we are compelled to say, of the church as well. Society at large has in an easy way set aside the divine precept and the sacred tradition, and in their stead they have set up their own ignorant opinions. The day is no longer a day to be remembered and kept holy. It has become a day of relaxation and pleasure, a day of social dissipation. It has been utterly secularized, devoted to work, to business, to individual and social indulgence as men please.

We believe that this desecration of the Sabbath is the main cause of the depletion of our congregations. To people who think of the Sabbath as a day of physical rest and social relaxation the obligation of attendance at the church is a negligible quantity. To persons who spend the day in visiting and taking their pleasure, a very strong motive is necessary to bring them to the evening service. They are exhausted and stay at home. What is perhaps worse, the family falls into the same habit, and church going is shamefully neglected.

Against this evil there is but one legitimate line of resistance. As preachers, we cannot condescend to cheap and coarse sensationalism to attract a congregation. A sacred cause can never profit by such meretricious artifices. The one is as bad as the other. It were better that the people stay away from the house of God than that we degrade its methods to that level. We must remember that in all these battles our weapons are not carnal, and the victory is not by might, nor by power, but by the spirit of God. We are to rebuke the evil as did the prophets whether the people will hear, or whether they will forbear; and we must give to our preaching the essential emphasis of a consistent practice.

We therefore offer for your adoption two resolutions:

1. That we, preachers and laymen, pledge ourselves to the conscientious observance of the Sabbath day in our individual lives.
2. That we, the preachers of the Conference, will insistently press upon our congregations the Commandment of Jehovah, "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

JAMES C. MORRIS, for the Committee.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

There are some facts connected with our church system of education with which each annual Conference should acquaint itself, and for this reason excerpts from the communication of the Secretary of the General Board of Education are embodied in this report. The following statistics have been conscientiously gathered from every part of our widely extended and growing educational system.

- (a) Present total value of our grounds and buildings is $11,978,133.00.
- (b) During the year 35 new buildings have been erected at the cost of $558,525.
- (c) There is a gain of $50,640 in our science equipment and 9,029 volumes in our libraries..
- (d) There is a gain of $343,319.00 to our total endowment, which amounts now to $4,394,782. The income of our institutions, derived from tuition, conference collections, interest on endowments, etc., this year was $2,027,138, which shows an increase over last year of $34,183.
- (e) We are glad to report also a gain in ————— of 32,833, making a total this year of 354,393.
- (f) We have 2,016 professors and teachers, 33,627 students in our institutions, showing an increase of 62 professors and teachers and decrease of 1,056 students.
- (g) Nine hundred and sixty-one students are reported as studying for the ministry, which shows an increase this year of 70. The General Board has received on its assessment for educational extension $35,962. It has expended $14,385 in aid of five colored institutions and $11,325 in aid of nine white institutions in mountain and rural territories. It has also expended $11,561 in support of the correspondence school.

At the last annual meeting of the Board in Richmond, Va., it was evident that the field of secondary education, on which the Board had entered, could not be adequately served, without a considerable increase in the resources of the Board. At this meeting a plan was adopted to be known as the Education Extension Foundation. The plan looks to the accomplishment of the end sought by the last General Conference: "The demands of the coming equadramus cannot be met without increase in funds, at the disposal of the Board of Education." The field of our operation is enlarging and larger demands call for larger resources. The Board should be put in position to undertake new enterprises. Mission schools, in various parts of our connection, call for assistance.

In view of these conditions, the General Conference sought to enable the Board to increase its resources, at least in part, by increasing the general assessment to $50,000, but so rapidly has the developing of this work gone on, that the Board soon discovered that the increase resulting from the action of the General Conference would still be inadequate and consequently recognized the necessity of some plan to still further increase the resources. To secure this end, it was decided to bring a hundred thousand persons in an education extension federation, pledged to the payment of $1.00 a year, for five years, during the week of prayer for colleges. These small pledges would give for educational extension a foundation of half a million dollars. This work has given a new significance to the Board of Education, and when our Church shall have laid this education extension foundation of not less than half a million dollars, we shall be in position to add largely to the facilities and efficiency of our mountain and rural schools, strengthen our conferences and build up and give direction to the great cause of Christian education in our midst. Through the club of 100,000 persons, we shall have access to Christian homes and be in position to greatly aid in the progressive betterment of our institutions, founded for the purpose of Christian education. We most heartily approve of the plan of the General Board of Education, and call upon our pastors to assist in every way possible the perfection of the scheme as suggested by the General Secretary.

CENTRAL COLLEGE.

The Board had the privilege of hearing the report of President Webb, Financial Secretary Sipple and President of Board of Curators Judge Jno. A. Rich. The report indicates a most hopeful future for Central College. The faculty has been very materially strengthened and the student body compared favorably with the standing of that body in the long history of this honored institution. The time has long since passed for an argument in support of Central College. To the most careless observer it must be apparent that as a Church we cannot hope to become a permanent and important factor in the establishment and supporting of the Kingdom of God in our midst, without the necessary assistance which shall come from the life and work of Central College. The resources of our Church in this great State are adequate for all the demands and all the needs of Central College. It devolves upon us as a Conference not only to accept the work being done by the authorities of the institution, looking to the increase in attendance and permanent endowment, but to lend to their effort all the support in our power. We approve the plans of the Financial Agent, and suggest that all our pastors in every way possible co-operate with him in the important work he is seeking to do for us and for our college. (See Resolutions.)

We recommend the election of Hon. Perry S. Rader and Rev. Frank M. Burton as curators of Central College.

We rejoice in the belief that the interest of Missouri Methodism in Central College is being aroused. We believe that the members of the Church are beginning to appreciate the necessity of increasing the Endowment Fund of their school of highest grade. Therefore,

Resolved, First, that we request each of the Annual Conferences in Missouri to make special effort to raise money for the Endowment Fund during the next conference year, and that each designate one month during which all the preachers will solicit money for the Endowment Fund, and we suggest the month of December.

Resolved, Second, that each preacher in each of the Annual Conferences be requested to make an earnest effort to raise an amount equal to $2.00 per member from the members of his charge, and that this shall be the minimum average amount sought.

Resolved, Third, that Bishop E. R. Hendrix and Bishop W. A. Candler be requested to devote so much of their time as they can command in this work, and that the chairman of this Board be instructed to call to his assistance such other distinguished speakers as he may deem necessary.

CENTRAL COLLEGE FOR WOMEN.

We are gratified to learn from the President, Rev. Geo. Gibson, that this efficient institution has entered upon a new career of growth and extension. Every room in the college is filled and the President has been compelled to find room for students in homes adjacent to the college building. Central College for Women compares most favorably with the leading institutions in our connection. It deserves and merits the enthusiastic support of every Methodist in Missouri. There is imperative need that the greater efficiency of this institution may be increased by the erection of a new building. We bespeak for Central College for Women the heartiest and most cordial support.

MORRISVILLE-SCARRITT.

The Board had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Perry, the recently elected President of the College. The institution has entered upon a year of growth and development. Friends of the institution confidently predict for it a year that shall, in all respects, equal any year in its entire and prosperous career. The relationship which this college sustains to our Conference, and the important work which it has rendered the Church gives it a peculiar claim upon the thought and support of our Church, and as far as we are able we cheerfully and gladly propose to make whatever contribution that is in our power to its ultimate usefulness. The Board recommends the following appointments as members of the Board of Curators for three years from date: M. C. Early, O. C. Jackson, C. C. Woods, W. P. Burkim, Bert S. Lee. Vacancies for two years: J. M. Cunningham, W. J. Ross, Sim Beam.

We recommend the appointment of H. M. Johnson as student in Chicago University; M. M. Sooter at Morrisville-Scarritt; W. W. Alexander at Vanderbilt; Wesley M. Smith and E. H. Orear at Vanderbilt.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. C. E. Pattillo to be Conference Secretary of Education.

Whereas, During the season of this Conference we have learned of the serious loss which has come to Westminster College, at Fulton, through the burning of one of its college buildings, be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of this Conference be authorized to express to the President of the Faculty of Westminster our sincere sympathy in his great affliction.

The Board considered, as carefully as it could, the demands of all these institutions upon us for larger appropriations. That they need and ought to have much larger appropriations goes without saying. There is no reason in the material welfare of our Church why a much larger appropriation should not be levied, for our church is a rich church, possessed of large resources and great wealth, but the payment on the assessment of last year shows that an increased assessment would mean really no gain to these institutions, whose claims are so just and whose demands are so urgent. As there is a deficiency of over a thousand dollars in our educational assessment, the Board does not feel justified in increasing the assessment. We therefore recommend the following assessments.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON SCARRITT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

To the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference:

Brethren:—Your committee appointed to consider the majority and minority reports to this Conference of Scarritt Collegiate Institute, report as follows:

1. The title of the north half of College Block in the city of Neosho, being the lots on which the school buildings are mainly located, is in E. L. Scarritt, C. H. Briggs, O. A. Moss, L. M. Lloyd and E. T. Webb, as trustees for this Conference. The deed creating this trust provides that the "Said land and premises being a voluntary gift for the benefit of the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall be held, kept and used for the purpose of an institution of learning to be under the control and direction of the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South." Said deed further provides: "It is the intention of this instrument that said grantees shall simply hold the legal title to the property herein conveyed to them in trust for the uses and purposes herein mentioned. But the said grantees herein shall at any time, when so ordered and instructed by the said Southwest Missouri Annual Conference by resolution passed at one of its regular annual sessions, properly signed by the presiding officer, and attested by the Secretary of the said Conference, grant, bargain, sell and convey the whole or any part of the property herein described, which sale or conveyance of the whole or any part thereof shall be done in strict compliance with, and in conformity to, the resolution of said Conference ordering said sale and conveyance, and the proceeds of such sale or sales shall be held and invested by said Southwest Missouri Annual Conference in other lands or improvements within the boundary lines of said Conference, which lands or improvements shall be conveyed to trustees to be held by them for the same uses and purposes and under the same restrictions, conditions limitations as herein set forth and expressed; and the power, control and authority of said Conference over such other lands or improvements shall be the same as herein given over the property herein conveyed."

The title to the south half of said College Block is vested in the same trustees for the same uses under like restrictions, but there is a vendor's lien on a part of it for something over one thousand dollars and the deed to the other part is held in escrow subject to a debt of about $800. Otherwise said south half is free from debt and the title thereto is held in trust in all respects the same as in the north half.

Your committee understands that under this deed this Conference can direct the sale of said property, that when sold the proceeds must be invested in other real estate within the bounds of this Conference and the title vested in trustees, and the property held by them for an institution of learning under the control and direction of this Annual Conference.

It being now demonstrated that an institution of learning under the control and direction of this Conference cannot longer be maintained at Neosho, your committee submits the following resolutions for your approval:

RESOLUTION.

Be it Resolved, by the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its regular annual session for the year 1909, held at Kansas City, Missouri, that Edward L. Scarritt, Corona H. Briggs, Lewis M. Lloyd, Oliver A. Moss, and E. T. Webb, as trustees, holding the legal title of the following described real estate, situated in the county of Newton and city of Neosho, Missouri, to-wit: Block Eight (8) in McCord's Addition to the town, now city of Neosho, being the property commonly known as the "Scarritt Collegiate Institute" property, be and they are hereby ordered and instructed by said Conference to grant, bargain, sell and convey the whole or any part of the property herein before described and at such times and at such prices and on such terms as the said trustees themselves may approve, and to receive the money paid therefor, and to use the money so received in paying off any debts or liens against said property, and invest the rest or the proceeds of said property in lands and improvements to be used for Scarritt Morrisville College, said lands and improvements to be selected and designated by the Board of Curators of Scarritt Morrisville College, and to vest the title to the property so purchased in E. L. Scarritt, T. J. Murray, Arch L. Johnson and F. M. Gray, as trustees, and the deed to said trustees shall contain the same restrictions, conditions and limitations and provide for the same uses of said property as the deed referred to above from E. T. Webb et al to E. L. Scarritt et al.

2. In 1892 W. E. Hall and M. E. Hall, his wife, of Carthage, Missouri, conveyed 1,600 acres of land "unto Scarritt Collegiate Institute * * * for the use and benefit of said institution of learning, especially for the endowment of the President's chair, in memory of our deceased son, J. Winston Hall." The consideration recited in the deed is "the love we bear for the cause of Christ and our earnest desire to promote his heritage on earth." Outside of these two causes, one reciting the consideration and the other the reasons for the conveyance there is no other purpose or use or trust expressed in the instrument.

For the purposes of this Conference no other clauses of said deed need be considered. It is not now necessary to consider whether or not said Scarritt Collegiate Institute, being a Missouri corporation, was capable in law of accepting as a gift lands located in another state, nor whether or not that corporation took the title further than as a trustee for the use and benefit of the Halls and their heirs. It is not necessary to consider either of these questions because Mrs. Hall and the heirs of her husband have released all claims to the corpus or proceeds of said gift. So that question is entirely out of the way. If the Halls now insist that the said corporation had no power to receive said lands as a gift, and therefore that the proceeds of the fund should be returned to them, a very troublesome question would be present. But they do not so insist, and therefore the point has been considered by your committee only because, if they did so insist, it would, in our opinion, strengthen their right to request that said fund be used to build a memorial church at Carthage. We consider that by releasing to the trustees of said church, by formal written assignment signed and delivered all claim to said fund, they have voluntarily removed from our consideration a vexatious question, and their said action is much to be commended.

By their action we are enabled to consider said conveyance as having absolute indefeasible title to said corporation, free from any legal claims by the grantors or their heirs, and in what we further report and recommend we have so considered said deed.

Said lands have been sold, and the proceeds of the gift are now in the form of cash or notes in the hands of the curators; and at its session last year this Conference directed said board of curators to return said fund to Mrs. W. E. Hall to be used in the erection of a house of worship in Carthage. The majority report that the Board of Curators has not obeyed that direction, and seem to base their refusal upon the belief that there is no forfeiture clause in said deed, and that they cannot safely turn over said fund without laying themselves individually liable. We do not understand deed to contain any forfeiture, nor the Halls or any other person to insist that it does, nor do we understand Mrs. Hall or the children of her deceased husband to set up any personal claim to said fund. There is, therefore, no question of forfeiture in the matter. Mrs. Hall and her husband's children do not ask that the fund be returned to them to be kept by them; they simply ask that it be used to perpetuate the memory of J. Winston Hall, and that it be invested in a church for that purpose. But the direction of last year was unfortunate in directing that said fund be returned to Mrs. Hall. It should have gone directly to the trustees of the said church.

We also understand that we have no right to pervert said charity. If in law the fund could be used only for an institution of learning, then it could not be turned over to the trustees of said church to be used in the erection of a house of worship. But we do not so understand said deed. We do not understand said conference direction of last year to direct in any sense, a perversion of said fund. In our opinion the purpose of the gift was to perpetuate the memory of J. Winston Hall through some Christian work. The consideration for said deed, in the language of the grantors, was "the love we bear for the cause of Christ and our earnest desire to promote his heritage on earth." That clearly indicates that in the grantors' minds they wished to establish a charitable fund to be administered through some religious and Christian instrumentality. They knew that the grantee belonged to this Conference; they therefore intended that the cause they desired to promote should be administered through some instrumentality of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. They further say that they gave said land "for the use and benefit of said institution of learning, especially for the endowment of the President's chair in memory of our deceased son, J. Winston Hall." In our opinion the primary purpose of said deed was to devote said gift to Christian work in a way that would preserve the memory of their son, through said institute of learning, if possible; if not through some institution of the church that would "promote Christ's heritage on the earth." It is admitted that said institution of learning has failed of the accomplishment of its purpose, and this fund must be turned over to some other institution of learning or set to work for the church in some other way. However applied, it must be used for the memory of J. Winston Hall. His mother and his brothers and sisters wish it used to erect a memorial church in Carthage. We are of the opinion that to so direct and use it would not be a perversion of the charity, and we are also of the opinion that there is no other way within the scope of the work of this Conference by which the purpose of said deed can be so appropriately met as by so applying said charity. We therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

RESOLUTIONS.

1. We hereby direct the curators of Scarritt Collegiate Institute to turn over at once to the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of Carthage, Missouri, the net proceeds of said Hall gift, cash, notes and other evidences of debt, and to make a proper legal assignment thereof to said trustees, and said trustees, when they have received said fund, are directed to use said fund in the erection of a house of worship, which house must by name and otherwise be designated as a memorial church to J. Winston Hall.

2. Before the trustees of said Methodist Church of Carthage shall use any part of said fund, or enter into any contract or assume any obligations in reliance thereon, they shall obtain from Mrs. W. E. Hall and all the heirs of Mr. W. E. Hall, deceased, a valid written assignment, duly acknowledged, of all their interest, right or claim in or to said fund, from themselves to said trustees, which assignment shall obligate said Board of Trustees to use said fund and the whole of it in the erection of a church building in the city of Carthage, Missouri, for the use of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which church building shall be a memorial of J. Winston Hall, and to use it for no other purpose; and said assignment having been obtained to have the same recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of Jasper county, and if such assignment cannot be obtained, said trustees are hereby required not to use any of said fund, but to keep the same intact, and report their failure in that behalf to this Conference at its next annual session.

Respectfully submitted.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We, your Committee on Books and Periodicals, submit the following:

Among the Christian publications of our church there is no paper superior to our Conference organ. Therefore we heartily recommend the St. Louis Christian Advocate to our people.

Whereas, One of the great needs in all departments of church work is information in the homes of our people; and

Whereas, A large majority of our people are without a church paper; therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly invite our laymen of every charge to co-operate with the pastor in raising a dollar for each home now without our Conference organ on the liberal offer made by the publishers to allow us to supply all such homes at half price for one year, and we suggest that this work be done in October.

The Christian Advocate, Epworth Era, Go Forward, the Methodist Review and Sunday School literature are worthy of the hearty support of the church and we believe their editors are doing their best to render useful service to the church and the Kingdom of God.

The annual statement of the Book Agents shows a very gratifying growth in the business of the publishing house.

In view of the efforts of Mr. W. C. Everett, manager of the Dallas branch of the Publishing House to supply the preachers at Conference with a very large and desirable line of books and his expressed willingness to visit our Conference, we heartily invite him to meet with us from year to year.

O. M. RICKMAN, Chairman.

U. V. WYATT, Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The past year has been the best in the 94 years' history of the American Bible Society.

It published and circulated two and one-quarter million copies of the Holy Scriptures, using one hundred languages in the United States. It expended about six hundred thousand dollars in carrying forward its work.

Over twenty-five thousand portions of the Word were circulated in the territory of the central agency in which this Conference is located.

We are glad to report that the Southwest Missouri Conference has practically doubled its gifts to this society this year.

With all Christian forces we rejoice in the munificent offer of Mrs. Russell Sage, to give to the Bible Society one-half million dollars for endowment, on condition that the churches raise an equal amount. Since pledges on this proposition must be made before December 31, 1909, we, your committee, respectfully offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Conference hereby pledges to give to the Sage Fund next year the same amount that we are giving to the American Bible Society this Conference year.

U. V. WYATT, Chairman.
J. H. HAYNES, Secretary.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS.

By a rising vote it was unanimously

Resolved, That the thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby tendered to Rev. Paul H. Linn, D.D., pastor of the Central Church, and those associated with him, for the careful preparation made for the entertainment of the Conference, and especially to the ladies of our Kansas City Methodism for the elegant hospitality enjoyed both in their homes and in the meetings at the church.

Also to the press for the careful report given of our proceedings; to Dr. O. E. Brown for the able and instructive lectures given by him during our session; also to the Home Telephone Co., the Smith Premier and Remington Typewriter companies; the Camptograph Adding Machine Co.; the Traders' National Bank, and to any others whose kindness contributed to the success and pleasure of our Conference session; also to Mr. B. H. Payne, general passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific railway, for granting us reduced rates, and to other roads, which following this good example, did the same.

L. F. SHOOK,
ORION E. VIVION.
W. P. BUCKNER.

REPORT ON JOURNALS.

We, your Committee of District Conference Journals, have the following to present as our report:

The journals of seven of the eight districts were before us.

Those of the Kansas City, Lexington, Marshall and Joplin districts are properly and neatly kept.

That of the Nevada district is correct in form in the main, but it might have been somewhat improved by separating the official roll from the body of the minutes and placing the session date at the top of each page to facilitate reference.

That the Western district is in proper form and neatly kept, except, we think, it unnecessary for the signatures of the president and secretary to be attached to each day's or part of day's session, only at the conclusion of the whole body of the minutes.

That of the Neosho district, we think, could have been somewhat improved by a little more care in execution and by indexing on the margin.

The Springfield journal was not before us.

Very respectfully submitted.

S. P. CAYTON,
OWEN HOOVER,
H. J. RAND.

COMMITTEE ON INVESTIGATION.

We, your committee appointed to investigate the complaint against Rev. A. H. Godbey, beg leave to report that after careful investigation, in our judgment, a trial is not necessary.

J. E. McDONALD,
WM. H. COMER,
O. M. RICKMAN.

TIME LIMIT.

Your Committee on Memorials to the General Conference report back to the Conference the paper referred to us requesting the elimination of the time limit, with the statement that we do not concur in the request. Nevertheless we request that the paper be submitted to the vote of the Conference and that the vote be taken without debate.

W. S. WOODARD,
C. H. BRIGGS,

TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, beg leave to submit the following report:

As ministers and followers of the Christ, and representatives of the church and Christianity, we feel that we have some occasion for rejoicing in the constantly growing sentiment looking toward the annihilation of the liquor traffic in our state and nation.

We believe that this body should take some concerted action, and we would pledge our support to every reasonable effort that is put forth for the accomplishment of that end. Recognizing that the liquor traffic is hell-born, that it is without conscience, hard-hearted and brutal. That it robs the home of its peace and purity and converts it into a place of misery and shame; victimizes and demoralizes the husband and father; murders the wife and makes outcasts of the children, while death and devastation lie in its path everywhere. Since it seeks to destroy our holy Christianity and prostitute humanity,

Be it Resolved, That we heartily favor the submission of the whole question to a popular vote of the people as proposed by the constitutional amendment movement by the initiative and referendum. We recommend that two representatives be appointed by the Conference on the Anti-Saloon League Board as they have requested. We challenge every true minister and follower of Christ to preach, teach, practice and vote against this murderous traffic.

J. T. PRITCHETT, Chairman.
J. C. DIGGS, Secretary.

MEMORIALS TO GENERAL CONFERENCE.

CHURCH PAPERS AND PERIODICALS.

Whereas, The problem of inducing our people to subscribe for the General and Conference organ and the several periodicals of the church is assuming serious proportions, we memorialize the General Conference to carefully review the whole matter of our church publications and take steps whereby the number of struggling conference organs may be so combined that we may have at least six great conference organs of equal rank in the connection, and that careful consideration be given the suggestion of combining the periodicals, representing our various connectional interests either into one great central organ or that these causes be fully represented in the several conference organs.

CHANGE IN DISCIPLINE.

We, the members of the Southwest Missouri Conference, assembled at Kansas City, Mo., September 11, 1909, hereby memorialize the coming general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to change the parenthesis of paragraph No. 309 of the Book of Discipline by substituting the words "Traveling Elder" for the words "Member of the General Conference," so that the paragraph will read: "The appellant either in person or by his representative (who shall be a traveling elder) shall state the grounds of his appeal, etc."

We recommend the adoption of the foregoing memorial.

MEMOIRS.

REV. J. L. SULLENS.

James L. Sullens was born in Cole County, Mo., January 12, 1860; converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, in 1876; was licensed to exhort by Preston Philips, in 1882; and to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Russellville Circuit, December 15, 1883, W. B. Palmore, P. E.; and died, from an accidental gunshot wound, December 16, 1908. His life spanned forty-nine years, less one month, and his ministry exactly twenty-five years.

Brother Sullens wrought as a local preacher six years, two of which he served as a supply on the circuit where he was raised and which gave him license to preach.

When he first applied for admission into the conference he was not received because of the insufficiency of his education. Two years more of study and preaching enabled him to meet the requirements of the law and he was received on trial in a class of 16 by this Conference at Marshall in 1889, and appointed to Prairie Home Circuit, which he served three years. In 1892 he went to Orearville and Shiloh, two years; 1894, Slater Station, three years; 1897, Clinton, two years; 1899, Monett, two years; 1901, Webb City, four years; 1905, Morrisville, two years, but in May of the second year his P. E. changed him to Campbell Street, Springfield, that charge having been made vacant by the sudden death of Brother Givens. To this he was returned in 1907, and also in 1908, but before the year came to a period he was transferred to the "City whose Builder and Maker is God."

Brother Sullens was ordained a deacon while a local preacher, in Springfield, by Bishop Hendrix, in 1887, and elder in Boonville by Bishop Haygood in 1893.

He was married to Miss Laura Tipton in 1881. They became the parents of seven sons and four daughters, all of whom, with their mother, survive him. His mantle has fallen upon his eldest son, Ernest, who was admitted on trial by this Conference one year ago and appointed to Jasper and Salem, but after the death of his father was changed to Campbell Street, Springfield, to take his father's place.

Brother Sullens was a faithful husband, a devoted father, a true friend, a guileless Christian, an eloquent preacher and a judicious pastor. "He was a good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord" by his ministry. He was the most eloquent preacher in his Conference.

Two weeks before he went home he preached from the text: "Here we have no continuing city; but we seek one to come." The subject of his last sermon was: "Silence." Had he a premonition of his departure? He had not reached the zenith of his power. Had he lived long enough he would have been, not only an eloquent, but also a very great preacher.

W. S. WOODARD, for the Committee.

REV. ROBERT SMITH HUNTER.

Robert Smith Hunter was born in Botetourt County, Va., September 14, 1834. In 1853 he moved to Nashville to work in the book store of McFerrin & Hunter. Hunter of the firm was John W. Hunter, his brother. At the close of 1854 he went to work for the Methodist Publishing House, and remained with them until the fall of 1856, when he joined the Tennessee Conference. His first appointment was White's Creek Circuit, 1856, and Sparta Circuit 1857 and 1858; Edgefield and Trinity, 1858 and 1859; Nashville Circuit, 1859 and 1860; Louisville Circuit, 1860 and 1861; Gallatin, 1861 and 1862. He was reappointed in the fall of 1862 to Gallatin Station, but in February of 1863 he joined the Confederate army under John H. Morgan and from then to the close of the war he was known as the fighting chaplain or fighting Bob Hunter. Few men could tell such interesting experiences of the war, but he was reluctant to do so. The record shows that he was present at roll call in the Tennessee Conference in 1865, and was stationed at Clarksville; Clarksville District P. E., 1866 and 1867; fall of 1867 was transferred to the Arkansas Conference and stationed at Little Rock until 1869; Little Rock District P. E. until 1872, when his health failed and he was granted supernumerary relation. In the fall of 1873 was transferred to the White River Conference and was stationed at Van Buren from 1873 to 1875; Presiding Elder of the Van Buren District from 1875 to 1877; stationed at Fayetteville, 1877 to 1879; Bellfonte and Harrison, 1879 and 1880; stationed at Bentonville, 1880 and 1881. In the fall of 1881 was transferred to the Southwest Missouri Conference and was stationed at Nevada; 1882 to 1883 at Neosho Station; 1883 to 1885, Boonville Station; 1885 to 1887, Marshall Station; 1887 and 1888, Montrose Circuit; 1888 and 1890, Jefferson City Station; 1890 to 1893, P. E. Clinton District; 1893 to 1894, St. Paul, Springfield; 1894 to 1896, P. E. Nevada District; 1896 to 1898, P. E. Clinton District; 1898 to 1902, P. E. Lexington District; 1902 to 1903, P. E. Kansas City District; 1903 to 1907, P. E. Marshall District; 1907 to 1908, stationed at Morrisville; received his last appointment, September 12, 1908, to Bunceton and Bell Air, where his labors ceased in the pulpit at Bunceton, thus reaching the desire of his life, that he might die with the harness on. After a lingering illness of two weeks he breathed out his last and fell asleep at the parsonage at Bunceton, November 16, 1908, having lived 74 years 2 months and 2 days. After having been an itinerant Methodist preacher fifty-two years. Only one Methodist preacher in about one hundred and eighty is privileged to give so long a service. He was married to Miss Ella Gee in 1860 at Nashville, Tenn. To this union Erwin Soule Hunter was born, who now lives in Oklahoma. His mother died at Bellfonte in 1880. He was married to Miss Bell Anderson of Morrisville, Mo., in 1883. To them were born Margaret, Rachel and Ewing, who survive him.

Brother Hunter was educated in the common schools of Virginia, but he considered that his real education was obtained during his relation with the publishing house at Nashville, Tenn. His ideal men in his early ministry were Dr. Alexander Irwin, Bishop Joshua Soule, Bishop Geo. G. Pierce and Dr. J. B. McFerrin. He was intimately associated with these men during his term in the publishing house. And for them he retained to the last an admiration and devotion that was inspiring.

Brother Hunter was a strong and eloquent preacher. He ranked easily as one of the best preachers in the Church. He was a man of high character and had a lofty disdain for cant and sham. In the finest sense he did his duty as he saw it and took without complaint the criticism from those who misunderstood him. We pause here to draw out this point: In the 22 years he served as P. E. he did what he thought was right and just in assisting to make the appointments and serenely wore the blame that others charged to him without explanation or apology. He was bold and fearless in fighting wrong, but he placed the emphasis in so presenting the Gospel as to persuade men.

He was brave in facing any danger, but was as modest as a maiden in presenting any personal claim. The egotist and fanatic bored him, but he was always genial and courteous to the humblest. He loved men. He prized as God's greatest handiwork a manly man. His was a beautiful spirit of cheerfulness, and he was known far and wide as a rare conversationalist. With old and young, rich or poor, ignorant or learned, he was greatly loved, and sweetened and gladdened every home he entered.

He was naturally a leader of men, not with the ostentation of command, but in the charm and strength of his personality, strong convictions, pure motives, keen insight, hard common sense and incorruptible integrity. Like Paul he made everything bend to the furtherance of the Gospel, and though he possessed versatile information, he "determined to know nothing among men save Jesus and Him crucified." So absorbed was he in making life count for the world's evangelization that he sacrificed every capacity, possession, ambition and interest to it. Wise in counsel, careful in gathering facts, firm in purpose, lifted above the trivial and little, his was among the most weighty words in the management of the affairs of the Conference. We shall miss his wise counsel, but we bow to the will of our Heavenly Father.

REV. J. J. HILL.

Rev. James J. Hill was born August 14, 1852, in Henry County, Tenn. In early life his parents moved to Dallas County, Mo., where he grew to manhood. He was converted at Old Liberty Church, in Dallas County, 1866. He was a pupil at Morrisville College for some time, but did not graduate there. He was licensed to preach in 1875 and was ordained a deacon, as a local preacher, in 1879. He was admitted on trial into the Southwest Missouri Conference in 1882 and ordained elder in 1883. Later he was transferred to the New Mexico Conference, where he labored several years, and then returned to the Southwest Missouri Conference. He was married to Miss Katie Bell White April 4, 1883. We cannot give his fields of labor, but we can say that he was always faithful, successful and popular. Brother Hill had a fine presence, a splendid personality, he ranked well as a preacher and was truly and deeply pious. He died in Independence, Mo., February 20, 1909, and was buried in Mount Washington Cemetery.

MRS. CHARLOTTE M. WHITE.

Charlotte M. Berry was born in Rockbridge County, Va., December 22, 1831. When three years old her parents moved to the State of Indiana, where she grew to womanhood. She professed religion and joined the Methodist Church in 1852, and was married to Rev. W. K. White, April 10, 1856, hence for fifty-three years, thirty of which her husband has been a member of the Southwest Missouri Conference, she was the wife of a Methodist preacher. All these years her husband has been in the front of the battle, on the frontier lines, where forage was scarce, hence she was inured to the hardships of a preacher's life. She was a brave soldier of the Cross, lived well and usefully and died peacefully, in hope of a blessed immortality, at her home in Warsaw, Mo., March 5, 1909, in the 78th year of her age. The multitude that attended her funeral proved the high esteem in which she was held by her neighbors.

MRS. U. V. WYATT.

Mrs. Lizzie Patterson Wyatt was born in Grayson County, near Whitewright, Tex. When eighteen years of age she was converted and joined the Methodist Church at Whitewright. February 14, 1900, she was married to Rev. U. V. Wyatt. After two and one-half years of severe illness she passed from her sufferings to that better world. The husband and two children are left.

The early years of her life were devoted to the study of art. At the time of her marriage she was a member of the faculty of Grayson College. She soon felt the need of better equipment for the larger service of life, and began a systematic study of the Scriptures. In 1902 and 1903 she attended the Scarritt Bible and Training School, and at no time was she happier than when in the service of her Master.

Born March 19, 1874, and died July 22, 1909. Her funeral was held at Mount Washington, in the church built by her husband, into which her own prayers and anxiety had also gone. The service was conducted by Rev. C. N. Scrivener, assisted by Rev. F. M. Burton, Rev. J. R. Hedges, and Rev. C. W. Scarritt.

Her remains were taken back to the home church, where she had been happily married, service there conducted by Dr. Z. M. Williams and Rev. W. Whiteside, and loving friends laid her body to rest in the beautiful cemetery at Whitewright, Texas.

Our Conference College, located in the Ozarks, thirty miles northwest of Springfield, in the most IDEAL CHRISTIAN COLLEGE COMMUNITY in Southern Methodism, opened September 8th, 1909, with over one hundred and fifty students on the ground the first day.

More full college students enrolled the first day than had ever been in attendance at any one time in its past history, while the admission requirements and course of study have been raised to compare favorably with our best colleges.

Ten full professors—all college and university trained specialists, as well as consecrated Christian men and women—NO TUTORS in the Faculty.

Plans on foot whereby we hope to build this year a handsome new brick GIRLS' DORMITORY, and also a separate LIBRARY BUILDING.
